"I love a challenge. Give me a difficult assignment to find your 'needle in a haystack' and I'm in!"

"Recruitment is not about CV matching or filling a job for the sake of it; it's about the bigger picture and what it will mean for the future of your company or career."

About Chris

A manufacturing specialist, Chris uses his 20 years' experience to source the best talent and exceed expectations. From Multi-Skilled Engineers to Engineering Maintenance Managers, Production/Manufacturing Team Leaders to Site Operations Managers, Chris is a motivated, consultative recruiter who looks to energise companies through excellent hires.

My spare time is largely consumed by my two young children – my son Rory and daughter Esmé, and during the summer months we like to camp under the stars near the sea and take part in all things outdoors wherever possible. I love every minute of it.

What you can expect from me

Honest, professional, experienced recruitment consultancy – no time wasting

Energy and motivation to tackle challenging assignments – dedication to find the 'needle in the haystack'

Excellence in candidate sourcing – the skill set, cultural and ethical fit for minimal disruption and maximum output

Ability to see the bigger picture – what the right hire will really achieve for your business

Long-term, mutually rewarding partnerships

Finding the right person, at the right time, for the right role at the right company is my motivation. I'm passionate and confident that great recruitment works; helping to improve lives and energise businesses.

Each specialist recruiter have become 'subject matter experts' through years of successfully recruiting in their specific sector.

RE.WARDING SUCCESS

We know that business evolves, customers demand, technology develops and organisations change over time. Our recruiters understand these challenges and have the same objective as you, to find the right people to help deliver on all these fronts. The single reason our recruiters are independent is because they are confident in their ability to deliver.

For our specialists there are no prizes for CVs sent, coffees bought or interviews arranged. Their only focus is to introduce you to the people you want to meet resulting in a successful hire. You deserve the best, working together we aim to provide it.

We are Seriously Connected to the people you want to be introduced to.

There are no limits to the reach of our recruiters, the power of collaboration is unbelievable. We connect micro networks together to create a unique and powerful super network. Independent Specialists seamlessly working with and connected to candidates and career opportunities that traditional recruitment businesses cannot match.

RE.WORKING RECRUITMENT

Why is it important to use a specialist recruiter?

Specialist recruiters normally know what is happening out there before it has even happened! Seriously Connected recruiters have spent years developing their relationships, trusted by clients to introduce talented individuals to their business whilst nurturing long term relationships with candidates looking to take their careers to the next level.

What's the difference between Seriously Connected and a recruitment agency?

No more trainees, only experienced specialist recruiters who typically work with fewer clients and candidates. With a traditional recruitment agency you choose the company, not the individual recruiter. With Seriously Connected, you choose a specialist independent recruiter to work with based on their experience and recommendations.

How do I know how experienced each recruiter is in my field?

Seriously Connected recruiters have outgrown the traditional agency model becoming independent to escape the inadequate KPI recruiting mentality. Each independent recruiter demonstrates their skills and experiences on the Seriously Connected platform; our specialist recruiters only work with clients and candidates they are confident they can truly support.

How can a Seriously Connected recruiter support me?

It's not about the size of the database that counts, it's about strong personal relationships that our recruiters have built up in their markets over many years. With a proven track record our recruiters are your industry experts, they know exactly where to look for what you need.

By working together with your recruiter you'll discover that even though they may not be Engineers or Accountants, our specialists know almost as much about their industry as the clients and candidates they represent.

RE.DEFINING RECRUITMENT

Effective Recruiting

The days of working to KPIs are over. Our recruiters focus on what matters most, adding value to your recruitment requirements. They work with fewer vacancies and are able to focus their efforts on making successful placements rather than hitting sales-driven targets.

Video Technology

Interviews are an essential yet time consuming part of the hiring process. With instant video technology we look to introduce clients and candidates in the most time efficient way, reduce the number of interviews and increase the opportunity of success.

Expert Knowledge

Using a specialist means that you gain access to their network within your particular sector and/or specialism. Seriously Connected recruiters are experts in their sector, with proven track records in delivering successful assignments becoming trusted by hiring managers and recommended by candidates.

Collaborative Results

Our independent experts are professional networkers with instant access to the contacts you need today. Utilising our platform and expansive reach to introduce career opportunities that are rarely advertised and the top talent who never appear on the open recruiting landscape.

Seriously Connected's core purpose is to reduce the time to hire by, connecting clients and candidates to highly experienced independent recruitment consultants who utilise modern technology to accelerate the hiring process.

Connected is part of our name and the core of why we're here, so we want to make it easy for you to connect with us. Want to find out more or have a question for us? Drop us a line.
